I started working as Director of Photography in 2002. Before I fully committed to working in the film industry I studied history in the University of Iceland and also in the University of Copenhagen where my passion for the film media grew every day. It was always my intention to write, direct, produce and shoot documentaries, but I got so fascinated by telling a story through the lens that everything else needed to wait.

<sup>1</sup> Shot over 100 lazytown episodes (more than 600 shooting days). The show received the BAFTA awards as the best international children show in 2006 and was nominated the 3 following years as well. Lazytown got the German Emil awards and Juliana Rose Mauriello (Stephanie) was nominated at the daytime Emmy awards in 2005. The show also got an Emmy nomination as the best children episode of 2006 and 2015 and Tómas was nominated for his cinematography on the show at the Icelandic Edda awards.
